A SLEEPING PREMIER.

Stories of Lord North's Drowsy Moments In Parliament.

Lord North was the sleeping parliamentarian of the eighteenth century. He was forever yawning in the faces of members and their speeches. Black and White says of him that indignant orators were constantly complaining of his refusal to listen to them, and he was never at a loss in subjecting them to the further humiliation of a sharp retort.

"Even now in these perils the noble lord is asleep!" burst forth an angry member of the opposition, and Lord North awoke in time to murmur, "I wish I were!"

Again he said to another grumbler, "The physician should never quarrel with his own medicine."

To a speaker who impeached him of all sorts of crimes and called attention to his dozing through the attack Lord North rejoined:

"It is cruel to deny me the solace enjoyed by other criminals—that of a night's rest before they meet their fate."

The best story of the sleepy premier is that connected with a peer who bored parliament with a history of shipbuilding from the time of Noah and his ark. North began dozing at the mention of the ark and slept until the speaker reached the Spanish armada. Then a colleague woke him.

"Where are we now?" asked North. "In the reign of Queen Elizabeth."

"Dear, dear!" exclaimed the prime minister. "Why didn't you let me sleep a century or two more?"

Whistler's Tart Comment.

Whistler one afternoon called on a young painter of his acquaintance who did the pretty little sort of things that are popular. In the course of the conversation that followed the young artist turned to a little head he was painting and, daintily balancing a square palette by one corner between two finger tips, took a fine sable brush and as daintily began to tickle a piece of bad drawing into a "sweet expression," saying:

"A pleasant art, ours, isn't it, Jimmy?"

"Yes" was Whistler's response, "but what are you doing, Frank?"

"Oh," said the young artist, "I am painting a replica of a little thing some one liked because, you know, I can always sell two or three of the same subject, if it's a taking one."

"Ah!" commented Whistler, "you must be a genius, Frank, and I, alas, am like the simple minded hen who, when asked to do so, protested that she could not lay the same egg twice!"

Tree That Turns to Stone.

There is a tree that grows in Mexico called the "cuijol" or stone tree. It is of enormous proportions, both in circumference and height. It has a number of branches spreading out widely and carrying leaves of a yellowish green color. The wood is extremely fine and easily worked in a green state. It is not given to either warping or splitting. The most remarkable thing about it is that after being cut the wood gets gradually harder, and in the course of a few years it is absolutely petrified, whether left in the open air or buried in the ground. From this timber houses can be built that would in a few years become completely fire-proof and would last as long as though built of stone.

The Hairpin In Surgery.

The hairpin as a surgical instrument is treated quite seriously by a physician who, writing in a technical journal, names fifteen different ways in which it may be used in an emergency to ease pain or even to save life. For example, it might serve as a probe, as a surgical needle, in place of a drainage tube, to remove foreign bodies, to compress a blood vessel or to close a wound.

"One hair of a woman can draw more than a hundred pair of oxen," wrote old James Howell almost three centuries ago. It may be that some of the virtue of the hair goes into the pin.

Ready to Take Hold.

"He told me it would probably be a bitter fight," said the man who had just been to see a lawyer.

"But he convinced himself of the justice of your cause," suggested his wife.

"Well, no, not right away," replied the prospective litigant. "He first convinced himself that I had money enough to make the fight."—Chicago Post.

A Display of Avarice.

On the occasion of giving a concert Mme. Sala engaged Paganini at a fee of 50 guineas, says the Golden Penny. The next day she repaid to the violinist's house and handed him the sum in gold, the sight of which filled the great player with such violent emotion that he plunged his fingers among the bright pieces, which he poured over his arms and hands as though they were water. Despite this display of avarice, however, he returned the fee to Mme. Sala.

At the recent quarterly conference of the Dover M. E. Church, South, the case against Rev. J. A. Sawyer for misconduct, etc., was again opened and some additional testimony taken, which will be presented to the Kentucky Conference at London in September when the case comes up. A number of new witnesses were examined. Rev. W. S. Grinstead, of Flemingsburg, will prosecute the case before conference when it meets on September 3rd, while Rev. George H. Means, of Winchester, will defend Rev. Sawyer.

AT RUGGLES.

Visitors at These Beautiful Grounds Thursday—The Religious Services Better Than Ever Before.

RUGGLES CAMP GROUND, July 31.

My Dear Mr. Editor: Another glorious day has passed here. The religious services of to-day have been better than ever. Two splendid sermons have been preached by Revs. W. H. Calvert, of Cold Springs, and A. H. Davis, of Vanceburg. Prayer and testimony meetings were held by Rev. E. L. Shepard and that ready and faithful worker Miss Sallie Burrows came out in time to lead the young people's meeting, and a good one it was. To-day we have had as visitors Mrs. J. C. Smith, son Robert, Miss Burrows, Miss E. Bierbower, Misses Jessie and Marie Rains, Miss Hutchins, Misses Lillie Ray and Mamie Pecor, and Miss Grace Bierbower comes to stay. Dr. W. R. Heflin also for the rest of the meeting. Our singing is fine. We have the largest and best choir of recent years with Miss Cruse as organist and B. K. Muse leader.

Mr. Editor, it is very gratifying to your correspondent to hear so many good things said about our townsmen John Duley and the meeting he held last Sunday afternoon. Of course your entire staff will visit us this week. F. W. H.

THE BAPTISM OF BELLS.

A Custom That Dates Back to the Reign of Charlemagne.

Bells were solemnly baptized like children, a custom which is still extant in the Roman church. This is probably not a primitive practice and cannot be traced further back than the reign of Charlemagne. It is first distinctly mentioned in the time of Pope XIII. (988), when he gave his own name to the great bell of the Lateran church. Sleidan gives an account of the ceremonial to be observed.

"First of all, the bells must be so hung that the bishop may be able to walk around them. When he has chanted a few psalms in a low voice, he minglest water and salt and consecrates them, diligently sprinkling the bell with the mixture, both inside and out. Then he wipes it clean and with holy oil describes on it the figure of the cross, praying the while that when the bell is swung up and sounded faith and charity may abound among men, all the snares of the devil—hail, lightning, winds, storms—may be rendered vain and all unseasonable weather be softened. After he has wiped off that cross of oil from the rim he forms seven other crosses on it, but only one of them within. The bell is censed, more psalms are to be sung and prayers put up for its welfare. After this feasts and banqueting are celebrated just as at a wedding."—Gentleman's Magazine.

Legend of Standing Rock.

The Indian legend of the stone from which Standing Rock gets its name is as follows:

Years ago a buck and his squaw were on a journey down the Missouri river to visit some relatives at a distant point. Where Fort Yates now is the buck saw a young squaw of surprising beauty, with whom he fell desperately in love. In spite of the tears and entreaties of his lawful wife he refused to proceed on the journey or in any other direction, but resolved to stay right there. The deserted squaw exhausted her entreaties and her tears and finally arose to leave the place alone. As she did so she stepped back in the spot where she had been sitting and turned to stone. There she has remained ever since, a standing reproach to her faithless lord and master and to all his kind. By a faint stretch of the imagination the standing rock from which the agency gets its name can be made to take the outlines of a woman.

Some Unsung Songs.

The following is a sample of the sort of letters a certain well known publisher often receives from persons desirous of having their names go down to posterity as successful writers of songs:

Mr. —
Dear Sir—I have to sing with words and music I composed my self which has never been published I would like you to print them from me they are up to date songs one is intitled the Rustic mill a love song the music is Walts time and the other the same Both are high Class music never been on the market I have wrote songs all my life But these 2 is my Best Composing you can let me now if you got Room for them I have you to make me and offer I want $500 Dollars for both of them and a Commission on the Dollar for each song

I will send you one of my songs any time you want me to your friend Mr. —

A Celebrated Goat.

On April 28, 1772, there died at Mile End a celebrated goat. She had been twice round the world, somewhat of a feat in those days, once on the discovery ship Dolphin, under Captain Wallis, and once on the Endeavour, under Captain Cook. She was admitted to the privileges of an in-pensioner of Greenwich Hospital by warrant of the lords of the admiralty, but before she could avail herself of the honor she died. Dr. Johnson wrote a couplet which the distinguished animal for some time wore round her neck.—London Opinion.

What Alligators Eat.

More than once curious things have been found in the stomach of a shark, but never has such an extraordinary collection been found as was discovered recently in the stomach of an alligator.

This alligator was killed in the Sudan and was more than twelve feet in length. In its stomach were discovered eighty-five stones, several birds' claws, two human finger nails and three hoofs of a donkey, to one of which a piece of rope was attached.

Its Effect.

Ding—Yes: it was like going from the frying pan into the fire. You know Dr. Hicharge cured my chronic rheumatism.

Dong—Well, then, what's the matter?

"I was paralyzed by the bill."—Baltimore Herald.

Fashion's Echoes.

Beige is a favorite color of the season.

The disk, or plateau, hat grows a little too generally popular.

The C. and O.'s handsome new freight depot at Cincinnati will be opened tomorrow.

The Episcopal Church now has five schools, fifteen teachers and 400 pupils in different parts of the mountains of Kentucky.

Gov. Beckham has sent to Commissioner of Agriculture Ion B. Hall his approval of the appointment of A. B. Ludwig of Louisville and Wm. Young of Latonia as State Labor Inspector and assistant to carry out the child labor law.

Rev. A. H. Lindsay, pastor of Mayslick Presbyterian Church, has filled his pulpit for the last time, during this year at least, as he has been granted a vacation until January 1st next. Saturday he will leave with his wife and children for Lexington, whence they will go to Arizona, where it is hoped Mrs. Lindsay's health will be improved.

Circuit Judge Parker handed down a decision at Lexington that the receivers of the Industrial Investment Company can sue and should sue the bondsmen of the officers of the company and recover money alleged to have been illegally taken. The receivers will at once sue to recover $87,721 which, it is alleged, should be among the company's assets.

Mr. Clarence Black, a popular young man of Covington, died suddenly Wednesday night, of heart failure. He was a nephew of the late Willie Black, formerly of Germantown, and was of most exemplary habits. He was thirty-two years of age and leaves a mother and sister. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon, and the interment will be at Highland Cemetery.

The Internal Revenue Department is determined to break up the practice of conducting a lottery or a gift distribution through the medium of packages of tobacco and cigarettes. The department also wishes to stop the circulation of indecent pictures, which, it is claimed, are sometimes so distributed. Collectors of Internal Revenue have been instructed to enforce the law on the subject.

Georgia is the great peach State of the Union, having 7,660,000 bearing trees. Next is Maryland with 4,015,000 trees, then New Jersey with 2,700,000, and Delaware with 2,400,000. Ten years ago Georgia was at the bottom of the list composed of these four States. Alabama and Mississippi are also becoming peach States. The South is destined to become the fruit region of the United States.

Commonwealth's Attorney W. A. Young, of the Bath-Rowan judicial district is being urged to enter the race for Lieutenant-Governor. He is a brother of Chairman Allie W. Young, and is Chairman of the Ninth Congressional District Democratic Committee. He has declined the solicitation of his friends upon many occasions to run for Lieutenant Governor, but they hope to be able to persuade him to make the race.

Attorney General Pratt has rendered an opinion construing the law as to the time allowed distillers to make withdrawal reports to the State Auditor. The old law and the new revenue law both require the reports to be made on the first day of January, May and September. Senator E. H. Taylor's bill giving the distillers until the 10th of each of those months to file the withdrawal reports became a law the same day the new revenue law was enacted. Attorney General Pratt says the Taylor bill is constitutional.

Mr. R. H. Fisher, of Columbus, O., who was here this week, is endeavoring to secure a pardon for Ben Tully, who is serving a term in the Columbus pen for horse stealing. Tully formerly lived on Cabin Creek. Mr. Fisher says a man named George Kelley has confessed to stealing the horse in question. Kelley was shot some time ago by Tully's father, and lay at the point of death in a Cincinnati hospital for a long time. Fisher became interested in Tully through teaching him in a Sunday school class at the penitentiary.

Miss Gordon announces she will open her private school for boys and girls in the chapel of the Church of Nativity the first Monday in September, 1902. The chief aim of the school shall be to instill high principles and to develop true and noble character, while the same careful drill and thorough discipline which have characterized her work in the Girls' High School the past fourteen years will be adhered to. Those wishing particulars may call on H. C. Sharp, State National Bank, Maysville, or write Miss Gordon, Maxwell street, Lexington, Ky.

HE MET HIS MATCH.

The Squire Got a Dose of His Own Disagreeable Medicine.

Men, as a rule, are more indifferent and communicative concerning the infirmities of age than women are, but the most amiable woman can generally find a pertinent remark to make when approached impertinently on this sacred theme. "Old Squire Jones doesn't speak to me now," said a gentle faced, silver haired lady, "and I don't blame him. He has excellent reasons for not wanting any conversation with me. Several months ago I was sitting in our carriage near the city library, waiting for Helen, when I saw the old squire drive up near me. He always has something unpleasant to say about how old we are all getting and what wrecks we all are, so I pretended not to see him. He came nearer, however, and accosted me.

John O'Connor has returned to his home in Cincinnati after a pleasant visit to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gray, of Augusta, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Mitchell.

Miss Katie Coughlin, of Cincinnati, is spending the week with Mrs. John Collopy.

Rev. Jos. Severance and little daughters spent last week with relatives in Stanford.

Miss Mayne Archdeacon and brother are attending the Cynthiana fair this week.

The rains this week were quite a benefit to the corn crop. Tobacco is being topped by several farmers.

Miss Kennan has returned to her home at Orangeburg after a pleasant visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Myall are both ill with the fever.

Miss Leedom, of Texas, is the guest of Miss Lida Myall.

Miss Sophia Snyder, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mrs. Robt. Ousley.

The Misses Berry, of Versailles, and Misses Wheatley and brother, of Lexington, are being pleasantly entertained by Miss Elizabeth L. Mitchell.

Mr. Robt. Yancey and daughter, Miss Mitchell and guests, Miss Bettie Yancey and guests, W. E. Pogue, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Longnecker, Mrs. Peed and daughters, Rev. Jos. Severance and family, Hon. Walter Matthews and family and Mrs. Rolf and children spent Wednesday at Blue Licks.

Quite a number of young folks attended Cherry Grove camp meeting Sunday.

Leo O'Neill and Mr. List, of Augusta, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Jackson and little daughter, of Maysville, are spending the week here with relatives.

Miss Luella Tamme and brother, of Paris, were guests of friends here from Saturday to Monday.

Birth-marks which mark and mark the outside of the body are a grief to every mother whose children may bear them. But for every child who bears a birth-mark on the skin there are many who bear an indelible birth-mark on the mind. Nervous mothers have nervous children and many a man and woman owes an irritable and despondent temperament to those days of dread when the mother waited the hour of her maternity. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the mother for her trial. With strength comes a buoyancy of spirits and quietness of mind, which is one of the happiest gifts a mother can bestow on her offspring. By giving vigor and elasticity to the delicate womanly organs "Favorite Prescription" practically does away with the pain of maternity and makes the baby's advent as natural and as simple as the blossoming of a flower. There is no opium, cocaine or other narcotic contained in "Favorite Prescription."

A gardener was offered only a cent a dozen for cucumbers Thursday. He hauled them back home. Another gardener sold a barrel of nice fresh cabbage Wednesday for 25 cents.

Mr. John T. Parker shipped eight horses and two mules on the steamer Stanley last night to Charleston, W. Va., for Hewitt Cabell. They were bought here this week by Mr. Cabell.

Jim Burger was in the Police Court this morning charged with vagrancy and was committed to jail until the next term of the Circuit Court. Jim has been in court so often for drunkenness that Judge Whitaker refused to try him again on that charge. It is one long continued drunk with Burger, and the man who sells or furnishes such an inebriate liquor ought to be driven out of business. There are two or three other chronic cases that Judge Whitaker intends to dispose of in the same way.

Bargains Are Ripe!

Money earns biggest returns through its spending when it secures such values as we are now giving in Irish Dimities. The price is by no means the chief fascination about these beautiful Dimities. The exquisite patterns tempted many women when the price was nearly twice as much. There is one manufacturer in Belfast whose name stands above all others for fine quality and beautiful designs—these Dimities came from him. There are no finer made.

Regular 25c. Quality

Now 15c. a Yard!

Many of the patterns are in the scarce white grounds with colored figures, dots and stripes. There are also many of the exquisite Pompadour designs you like so well. Then there are grounds of light blue, Navy blue, China blue, pink, gray, heliotrope, primrose and black, with big and little dots, wide and narrow stripes.

THE STATE ENCAMPMENT

At Mammoth Cave Will Attract Many Visitors—Many Social Festivities Planned For the Gathering Now On.

The annual encampment of the Kentucky State Guard is being held at Mammoth Cave, the Second regiment, under command of Col. Roger Williams, of Lexington, having pitched their tents Wednesday. The soldiers present a fine appearance in their new khaki uniforms. The encampment has drawn an unusual number of visitors to the cave, and the boys have an appreciative assembly to witness the drills. There are about 500 men under Colonel Williams. The Second regiment will remain in camp until August 9, when the Third, under Colonel Thomas J. Smith, of Bowling Green, will arrive to remain until August 18th. This comprises the Western Kentucky companies. The artillery, which is composed of Batteries A. and B. of Louisville, and the drum corps and trumpet corps, will be in camp from August 4th to 13th. The social features will be on quite an extensive scale. Three grand balls will be given, aside from the hops each evening, one in honor of the Governor, one in honor of the Adjutant General and one in honor of the officers of each regiment. The satisfaction of viewing Mammoth Cave, an education within itself, the pleasure of boating, fishing and bathing in historic Green river, together with the numerous social festivities, will make this an exceptional time for visiting the cave.

River News.

Down this evening; Gould, Tacoma and Queen City. To-night Bonanza. Up to-night, Indiana.

Another rise at Pittsburg Thursday, making the fifth coal shipping stage at that point in July. About seventy-five barges will come on this last rise.

Capt. Wm. Bay, of Ironton, is figuring on a fine new sidewheel boat. The Gallipolis Foundry and Machine Company has a bid in for furnishing the machinery and boilers. It is said that the boat will likely take a day in the Pomeroy and Cincinnati trade if she is built. The Bays are now owners of the packets Greyhound and Ruth and the Ironton wharfboat. They are considered very shrewd steamboatmen and are well off financially.

The trust estate of W. E. Nash was appraised at $114.87.

Commissioner's SALE!

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.

John M. Hunt,
On Petition Ex. Parte. } Equity.

In obedience to a judgment and order of sale of the Mason Circuit Court, rendered in the above mentioned cause at the June term, 1902, I shall, on Saturday, August 2nd, 1902,

at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises, proceed to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, the following real property, to-wit:

First—Parcel of ground made up of three pieces, in Maysville, Mason Co., Ky., the first situated on the corner of Third and Plum streets, south of Third street forty-two feet to the northeast corner of Third and Plum streets, being a brick house thence on a line at right angles with Third street and parallel with Plum street, fifty-eight feet to a stately residence on a line at right angles with the last mentioned line and Plum street forty-three feet to Plum street; thence along Plum street fifty-eight feet to the beginning.

Second—All that certain lot on Plum street in said city, fronting on said street twenty-nine feet and running back sixty-six feet, both of said lots being to the same conveyed by Fredrick M. Westcott to John H. Hunt, by deed dated 31st day of March, 1890, and recorded in deed book 67, page 45 in Mason County Clerk's office.

Third—All those certain lots of ground in said city, fronting on Third street, south side, above Plum street, one fronting on Third street twenty-three feet and running back same width fifty-eight feet, and the one lying above this one and fronting on said street sixteen and a half feet and running back same width 145 feet, being the same lots conveyed to John H. Wilson by Fredrick Fristoe, executor of Richard Fristoe, deceased, by deed dated the 1st of October, 1860, recorded in deed book 68, page 66, in Mason County Clerk's office, saving and excepting however from said property that portion of one of the last mentioned lots conveyed by said Wilson and wife to John Kane by deed dated October 18, 1860, recorded in deed book 68, page 37, in Mason County Clerk's office and described therein as lying immediately back of Kane's lot, the full width of the same, 30 feet, more or less, and extending back same width sixteen and a half feet. The above described property is all now, in one lot, and has on it a stately brick house and other improvements and is the same conveyed to Mary Hunt by John H. Wilson and record by deed of September 22, 1865, recorded in deed book 70, page 489.

Second—All that certain lot of ground situated and lying in said Maysville, Ky., on Plum street some twenty-eight feet and running back East some forty odd feet, being near the corner of Third and Plum streets and adjoining the first described property, being the same conveyed by Daniel Hunt to the plaintiff, Mary E. Hunt, and others by deed of September 17, 1881, recorded in deed book 86, page 516, in Mason County Clerk's office.

The first described property will be sold as one parcel, and the last described parcel separately.

The purchaser must be prepared to promptly pay the purchase bond, with approved security, for the purchase price, which bond shall bear legal interest from day of sale until paid.

C. BURGESS TAYLOR,
Master Commissioner.

Thomas R. Phister, Attorney for Petitioners.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

Council of This Order to be Organized in Maysville—Grand President Luby Here Thursday.

Mr. Jno. J. Luby, of Lexington, Grand President of the Young Men's Institute, was in Maysville yesterday, for the purpose of organizing a council of that order here. He has met with great success, having received about fifty names to secure the required charter.

There is no reason why Maysville should not have a Y. M. I. Council, as there is no more popular Catholic organization. Its growth has been tremendous the past few months; no less than 120 councils having been organized throughout the country. They have placed their motto, "Pro Deo, Pro Patria," even in the newly-acquired territory of Manila, Hawian Islands and Cuba.

The party who made complaint through the BULLETIN a few days ago about the flushing of water mains was not aware of the fact that the water company has adopted an improved system for such work. Flushing pipes have been put in at several points along Front street, and the flushing is done now by opening these pipes for fifteen or twenty minutes at a time, instead of driving about over the city and opening the various plugs. This cleans the mains more thoroughly, it is claimed, and in much less time than under the old system.

The Maysville-Manchester game Thursday afternoon was another runaway victory for the locals, the score standing 20 to 9 in their favor at the close. Maysville has two very promising batteries in Dinger and Feltman and Yarnell and Dressel, and the locals are strong enough to down most any of the non-professionals. They have found all the surrounding teams "easy money."

In Thursday's game the local's playing was not up to their standard, both teams making many errors. The score stood 11 to 9 in the seventh inning, when the locals got down to work in their old style, and from that until the end of the game they played good ball. Howell, the pitcher for the visitors, pitched a good game. Dinger held up his end for the locals. The Ohio club is composed of a lot of gentlemanly young men, and it is a pleasure to deal with them.

The Pickaways will probably play here Monday, August 4th,—County Court day.

DIED THURSDAY.

Wife of Mr. Jerry Cole succumbs to a complication of Diseases—Funeral Saturday.

Mrs. Orena (Gillespie) Cole, wife of Mr. Jerry Cole, died Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Lewisburg, after a lingering illness, of a complication of diseases. Her husband and a three-year-old daughter survive. She was about thirty-two years of age and was a daughter of Mr. Gillespie, of Tollesboro.

The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at Shannon. Burial at Shannon.

The union services next Sunday evening will be held at the First Baptist Church.

Lost—Wednesday, between Maysville and Washington, on Hill City pike, a gold breastpin with small diamond in center, surrounded by pearls. Liberal reward to finder if returned to the Bee Hive.

Fine Rains Assure Good Crops

And a bountiful harvest provides full bins. Successful farming depends a great deal on substantial fences—and the weather. The greatest yields are produced on land that is made stock-proof. Prosperous farmers, being quick to recognize an article of real merit, are satisfied only with the best—

The American Woven Wire Field Fence.

As an all-purpose fence it has no equal in the world. Made of large, strong, high grade steel wires, heavily galvanized, it is practically everlasting, never goes wrong and will stand any strain that is likely to be put upon it. When marketing your grain, bring the wagon around and load up with the "American."
